Date	Caller	Musicians
English Sunday, July 3	Richard Sauvain	Arugula Arugula, in various configurations, has a long history of playing for both our English and our contra dances. Their mix of violin, flute, piano, & bass is rich in texture and lively in energy. Richard will teach us a pleasing mix of dances old and new.
Contra Thursday, July 7	Colin Hume	Calliope A fantastic treat from across the pond – Colin Hume is visiting from England. He is a world-renowned creator who will teach contras & other formations that are popular in England. Touring with Colin is a wonderful band called Calliope from New England. We will have a subset of these talented musicians: Amy Cann (Violin, Viola, Piano), Richard Salvo (Clarinet), Carol Compton (Piano), Bruce Randall (Trombone, whistles & recorders), Marco Brehm (Bass), Vince ODonnell (Fiddle) & Norm Spencer (accordion).
English Sunday, July 10	Colin Hume	Calliope Don't miss this opportunity to experience excellent teaching with British flair from one of the great callers of our generation. Colin has deep knowledge of country dance, developed over decades of calling in England. He's in the colonies to teach at the Amherst Early Music Festival, and we are lucky to get him on a pre-Festival tour. Music by Calliope (see July 7).
Contra Thursday, July 14	Clinton Ross	George Wilson & Jane Knoeck Clinton is a touring caller who will treat us to contras from his large collection of dances. George Wilson a super-talented fiddler from Eastern New York will team with Jane Knoeck to play revolutionary new tunes on this Bastille Day!
English Sunday, July 17 EARLIER TIME 2-5 PM	Pamela Goddard & Allison Thompson	Amarillis A Sunday afternoon tea dance, with Amarillis, a great band from Pittsburgh. The musicians are Maro Avakian (piano), Donna Issac (fiddle), & Allison Thompson (accordion). From tender waltzes to driving English dance tunes, this trio is adept & energetic. Allison will share the calling with Ithaca caller Pamela, a local favorite.
Contra Thursday, July 21 ALTERNATE SITE AND EARLIER TIME First Baptist, 175 Allens Creek Road 7:00 – 9:30 PM	Chuck Abell	Robin Osgood & Norman Rodham Robin Osgood danced her first contra in Rochester in 1992. She & husband Norman are touring WNY, so we are delighted to have her play the fiddle at her first "home dance". Norman plays guitar, bodhran, cittern, bones & foot percussion. Come dance to Celtic, Quebecois, & traditional New England Contra music. Our own Chuck Abell will be calling tonight.
English Sunday, July 24	Melanie Axel-Lute	Eileen Nicholson & Jane Knoeck Melanie is known for interesting programming, clear teaching, and enthusiasm for the dance that shines through & makes the dancing fun. Jane's sparkling piano & Eileen's dynamic violin make moving to music even more enjoyable.
Contra Thursday, July 28	Sherry Nevins	New Brew Eileen Nicholson, Tom Santarsiero & Jane Knoeck have picked a name for their band: New Brew! Come celebrate. Sherry Nevins visits us again from the West Coast with fun dances.
