Date	Caller	Musicians
Contra Thursday, September 4	Margaret Mathews	The Esteemed Clams A perfect match with music and caller tonight. While some callers get caught up in trance-like old time music, Margaret knows and plays the tunes herself, and will call great dances that are perfect for the music. The Esteemed Clams play lively old-time music with Kathy Vandemortel on fiddle, Stephen Bland on banjo and Fred Filbrich on bass.
English Sunday, September 7	Bob Nicholson	New Configuration Molly Jaynes, Silvia Sorensen, Chris DeGolyer and Roger Cass making the music, with a very popular caller. Everyone has fun when Bob calls — he creates a relaxed atmosphere and is skilled at supporting dancers of all levels.
Contra Thursday, September 11	Joyce Rossbach	Eileen Nicholson and Eric Anderson Joyce is visiting after a long absence from Rochester. You might remember her great repertoire of fun dances, her southern wit, and her buoyant style. After working as Director of the Augusta Heritage Center for 5 years, she'll bring fun and surprises to our hall. A classic combination of traditional music provided by Eileen Nicholson, a fantastic fiddler from Syracuse, and Eric Anderson, an amazing piano player from Seattle.
English Sunday, September 14	Richard Sauvain	Serendipity Hauntingly beautiful music from Laurie Williams on flute and Barb Seppeler on piano.
Contra Thursday, September 18	Maxine McDonald	A Wonderful Band playing live music in our hall What could be better than dancing to live music? Come on out and join us.
English Sunday, September 21	Pamela Goddard	TBA An Ithaca caller with a warm and witty way of getting dances across. Music still being arranged at press time - check the website.
Contra Thursday, September 25	Bob Nicholson	Coracree From Philadelphia, we'll have lively and playful music with the amazing Jane Rothfield on fiddle, Sarah Gowan on guitar, concertina, foot percussion, Allan Carr on bass & guitar, and Bill Quern on banjo and mandolin. A true gentleman, the genial and attentive Bob Nicholson from Syracuse calls great dances and we're always glad to see him in Rochester.
English Sunday, September 28	Dan Seppeler	Serendipity Barb & Laurie return to play for Dan's always intriguing selection of dances.
